The Crook County Parks and Recreation District has a variety of facilities that may be rented for practices, tournaments and special events. Interested organizations and individuals are required to make reservations and pay fees in advance of rental. A facility use agreement and proof of insurance is required for large event rentals. Additional fees may be assessed for rentals if damage or loss occurs or if extra clean-up is required. Receipt of rental is required on site.

Special Events and Tournaments will require a special event review by Admin staff and receipt prior to reservation confirmation. Event bookings are recommended a minimum of 30 days advance. Discounts may be given for multiple day bookings.
